Section three – to be filled in for jobs requiring a Disclosure and Barring Service Check (DBS)

Access to children and/or vulnerable adults

Warning. This post has substantial access to children and/or adults. If we offer you the job, you will need a DBS check. We will withdraw the offer if the check highlights something about you which we assess would make you unsuitable for the job. We take criminal records into account only when the conviction is relevant. Failing to disclose a conviction, caution, reprimand or final warning may result in your application being disqualified. If we discover evidence of this after your appointment, we could dismiss you without notice.

As this post has substantial access to children and/or adults, you must disclose if you have any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings which would not be filtered in line with current guidance. A conviction will not necessarily bar you from employment. The Council complies with the Disclosure and Barring Code of Practice which is available on www.gov.uk/dbs.

If you have criminal convictions, read the criminal conviction filtering guidance at www.gov.uk/government/collections/dbs-filtering-guidance. Check the list of offences that will be filtered so you're informed about whether to disclose your criminal information.
